UNITED STATES' ANSWER TO PLAINTIFFS' SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

COMES NOW Defendant, the United States of America, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorneys, and in response to Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint (Doc. 47) answers and avers as follows:

General Denial

Defendant denies all allegations set forth in the Second Amended Complaint not otherwise admitted in the following paragraphs, including all well-pleaded allegations contained in Plaintiffs' prayer for relief.

Specific Denials and Responses

Answering the specific numbered paragraphs of Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint, using the same paragraph numbering, Defendant further states as follows:

PARTIES

1. Admit that Beaubrun was sentenced to 8.5 years for conspiracy to commit wire fraud and identity theft. Deny she is a 48-year old female, aver she is 49 years old.

Deny that she was a first time offender, but admit she was a first time federal offender. Deny that she served the entirety of her sentence at the women's camp at FCC Coleman ("Coleman Camp"). Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 1 are denied.

2. Admit that Goduto is a 36-year old female. Deny that Goduto sentenced to only 10 years on charges of drug possession, aver that Goduto was sentenced to a 168 month aggregate sentence (14 years). Deny that she was a first time offender, but admit she was a first time federal offender. Admit that she served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp commencing in July 2015 and that she was transferred to FCI Tallahassee in 2019. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 2 are denied.

3. Admit that Guggino was sentenced to 10 years for armed robbery. Deny she is a 35-year old female, aver she is 36 years old. Deny that she was a first time offender, but admit she was a first time federal offender. Deny that she served her sentence at FCI Tallahassee or the Coleman Camp for the periods alleged. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 3 are denied.

4. Deny Hoehn is 30 years old and that she was sentenced to 27 years for conspiracy to possess and distribute drugs; aver she is 32 years old and was sentenced to 24 years and 1 month for conspiracy to manufacture and possess with an intent to distribute methamphetamines and possession of a firearm in furtherance thereof. Deny that she was a first time offender, but admit she was a first time federal offender. Admit that she served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp commencing in October 2016. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 4 are denied.

5. Admit Johnson was sentenced for conspiracy to manufacture methamphetamine. Deny she was sentenced to 8 years, it was originally 84 months, and subsequently modified to 52 months and 16 days. Deny she is a 40-year old female, aver she is 41 years old. Deny that she was a first time offender, but admit she was a first time federal offender. Admit that she served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp commencing in May 2016 through February 2019. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 5 are denied.

6. Admit.

7. Admit Ursiny is a 56-year old female. Deny she was sentenced to 15 years for mortgage fraud, aver she was sentenced to 10 years 1 month. Admit she served a portion of her sentence at Coleman Camp from 2012 through 2020. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 7 are denied.

8. Deny Watson was sentenced to 5 years for bank fraud, aver she was sentenced to two years. Deny she is a 37-year old female, aver she is 38 years old. Defendant lacks knowledge or information as to whether Watson was a first time offender, and accordingly denies it. Admit Watson served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp from March 2017 through February 2018. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 8 are denied.

9. Admit Berman is a 26-year old female. Deny she was sentenced to 3 years for conspiracy to distribute drugs, aver it was 30 months. Admit Berman served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp, but deny it was for the period alleged, rather it was from February 2017 to December 2017. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 9 are denied.

10. Admit Flowers is a 35-year old female convicted of wire fraud. Deny she was sentenced to 2 years, aver it was 20 months. Admit Flowers served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp from 2017 to 2018. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 10 are denied.

11. Admit Aloe was sentenced to just over 4 years for odometer tampering (and securities fraud). Deny she is a 60-year old female, aver she is 59 years old. Defendant lacks knowledge or information as to whether Aloe was a non-violent first time offender, and accordingly denies it. Admit Aloe served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp from 2016 to 2019. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 11 are denied.

12. Admit DiMuro was sentenced for drug possession with intent to distribute and firearm possession in furtherance thereof. Deny she is a 32-year old female, aver she is 33 years old. Deny she was sentenced to 10 years, it was 12 years, 10 months. Deny that she was a first time offender, but admit she was a first time federal offender. Admit that she served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp commencing in October 2016 through 2019. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 12 are denied.

13. Admit Mora was sentenced to 10 years for drug possession with intent to distribute and firearm possession. Deny she is a 43-year old female, aver she is 44 years old. On information and belief deny that Mora was a first time offender. Admit she served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp from February 2016 until May 2018. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 13 are denied.

14. Admit Reynolds is a 33-year old female who was sentenced to 12 years for being a felon in possession of a firearm (as well as probation violation). Admit that she served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp from March 2018 through 2019. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 14 are denied.

15. Admit that Leon served a portion of her sentence at the Coleman Camp beginning in April 2013. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 15 are denied.

16. Admit that in certain instances the United States has waived its sovereign immunity for suits for money damages under the Federal Tort Claims Act. Admit that Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i) provides for service of both the United States Attorney and Attorney General in suits against the United States and that Plaintiff has listed addresses for each for such service. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 16 are denied.

17. Deny.

18. Deny.

19. Admit DeCamilla was a Special Investigative Supervisor in the Special Investigative Services (“SIS”). Deny Kajander worked for SIS. Admit that responsibilities of both DeCamilla and Kajander could include investigations of allegations of inappropriate activity by staff members and inmates. Deny the second and third sentences of paragraph 19. Except as specifically admitted, the remaining allegations of paragraph 19 are denied.

20. Deny.

21. Admit that OIG and the U.S. Department of Justice have responsibility in connection with decisions to investigate and bring criminal charges against federal correctional officers for commission of federal crimes. Admit that OIA has certain investigative responsibilities, but deny OIA has a specific role in bringing criminal prosecutions. Admit that none of the former correctional officers were prosecuted, deny that there was a “failure” to do so, and deny that there was not a timely investigation.

22. Admit that Palomares served as a correctional officer at FCC Coleman and that he resigned as a correctional officer in September 2018. Admit that in interviews conducted in September 2018 and June 2019, Palomares stated that he had previously engaged in sexual conduct with Plaintiffs Aloe, Beaubrun, Berman, Flowers, Leon, Mora, Watson, but aver that both he and Plaintiffs had previously denied said conduct. Admit he was not prosecuted. Deny the remaining allegations of paragraph 22.

23. Admit that Phillips served as a correctional officer at FCC Coleman and that he resigned as a correctional officer in October 2019. Admit that in an interview conducted in October 2019, Phillips stated that he had previously engaged in sexual conduct with Plaintiffs Berman and Flowers, but aver that both he and Plaintiffs had previously denied said conduct. Admit he was not prosecuted. Deny the remaining allegations of paragraph 23.

24. Admit that Campbell served as a correctional officer at FCC Coleman and that he resigned as a correctional officer in April 2019. Admit he was not prosecuted. Admit that in an interview conducted in June 2019, Campbell stated that he had previously engaged in sexual conduct with Plaintiffs Leon, Nagy-Phillips and Aloe, but aver that both he and Plaintiffs had previously denied said conduct. Deny the remaining allegations of paragraph 24.

25. Admit that Vann served as a correctional officer at FCC Coleman and that he resigned as a correctional officer in December 2019. Admit he was not prosecuted. Admit that in an interview conducted in October 2019, Vann stated that he had previously engaged in sexual conduct with Plaintiffs Berman and Flowers, but aver that both he and Plaintiffs had previously denied said conduct. Deny the remaining allegations of paragraph 25.

26. Admit that Urdialez served as a correctional officer at FCI Tallahassee and that he retired in February 2019. Admit that because he retired with more than 20 years of service he did retire with full retirement benefits. Admit he was not prosecuted. Deny Urdialez stated that he engaged in sexual conduct with Guggino in interviews, admit Guggino has stated that she has engaged in such conduct; however aver she has also denied as much in other interviews. Deny the remaining allegations of paragraph 26.

27. Admit that Kuilan served as a correctional officer at the FCC Coleman and that he resigned as a correctional officer in August 2019 with a medical disability, thus he did receive some benefits. Admit he was not prosecuted. Admit that in an interview conducted in September 2019, Kuilan stated that he had previously engaged in sexual conduct with Plaintiff Reynolds, but aver that both he and Plaintiff had previously denied said conduct, including earlier that same day. Deny the remaining allegations of paragraph 27.

28. Admit that Gonzalez served as a correctional officer at FCC Coleman. Admit he was not prosecuted. Deny the remaining allegations of paragraph 28.

29. Admit that Laudenslager served as a correctional officer at the FCC Coleman until he retired in September 2018. Admit because he retired with more than 20 years of service he did retire with full retirement benefits. Admit he was not prosecuted. Admit that in an interview conducted in July 2019, Laudenslager stated that he had previously engaged in sexual conduct with Plaintiff Leon, but aver that both he and Plaintiff had previously denied said conduct. Deny the remaining allegations of paragraph 29.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES AND ALLEGATIONS

1. The injuries or damages, or both, alleged in the Second Amended Complaint were not proximately caused by a negligent act or omission of any employee of the United States acting within the scope and course of their employment.

2. This Court lacks jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' claims.

3. Attorney's fees taken out of the judgment or settlement are governed by statute. See 28 U.S.C. § 2678.

4. The United States is not liable for interest prior to judgment or punitive damages. See 28 U.S.C. § 2674.

5. Plaintiffs' claims for damages are limited to damages recoverable under 28 U.S.C. § 2674.

6. Any recovery by Plaintiffs is subject to the availability of appropriated funds. See 42 U.S.C. § 233(k).

7. To the extent that any of Plaintiffs' claims were not the subject of an administrative tort claim, this court lacks jurisdiction over those claims. See 28 U.S.C. § 2675(a).

8. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the discretionary function exception to the FTCA.

9. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by 18 U.S.C. § 1346(b)(2).

10. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the statute of limitations.

11. Plaintiffs failed to exhaust their administrative remedies.

12. Plaintiffs are limited to the amount set forth in the administrative claims.
28 U.S.C. § 2675(b).

13. In the event that damages are awarded to Plaintiffs in this matter, which the United States specifically denies, all future economic damages must be made as periodic payments, as set forth in Fla. Stat. Ann. § 768.78 (1)(a)(2).

14. In the event that damages are awarded to Plaintiffs in this matter, which the United States specifically denies, such an award must be reduced by the amounts paid to Plaintiffs from collateral sources, as set forth in Fla. Stat. Ann. § 768.76 (1).

15. Plaintiffs are not entitled to a jury trial. See 28 U.S.C. § 2402.

16. Plaintiffs' claims for damages are subject to the limitations imposed by Florida law.

17. Plaintiffs' own acts or omissions, including failure to report any alleged inappropriate conduct through the channels provided to do so, bar or reduce the recovery to which they would be entitled.

18. Recovery is barred or reduced to the extent Plaintiffs failed to mitigate their damages.

19. Plaintiffs' claims are legally inconsistent under Florida law and while they may plead inconsistent theories, they may not recover on factually or legally inconsistent theories.

20. Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim under Florida law.

21. This court is not the proper venue for the claims arising out of FCI Tallahassee.

The United States asserts that it has, or may have, additional affirmative defenses that are not known to the United States at this time, but may be ascertained through discovery. The United States specifically preserves these and other affirmative defenses as they are ascertained through discovery.
